

Meeting You Half Way.

It's the desire for your December trade that causes us to offer such sweeping values—makes us content with smallest margins—that tempts us to meet you half way. It's a desire backed by merchandise that means every reliability—the goods that possess worth. A comparison of prices will assure you of the truth of this, and readily convince you that for dependable, choicest values this store leads the selling.

A Special Value List.

Items that during December we hurry the selling—we push them out of the way just at the time they are really of interest—when the time is ripe. You'll be placing money in your savings fund, when you're making selections from these. Ladies' winter vests 20c. Union suits 50c. Balmoral skirts 70c. Ladies' and children's woolen hose 25c. Men's vests 35c. Children's handkerchiefs six for 25c. Children's suits $1.00.

We Will Have Plenty

Of excellent ideas here that will make the appropriate holiday presents that your good judgment will suggest—plenty of low prices that will cause you to open your purse—you'll feel they're along most economical lines. Don't fail to give us a call.

CLOTHING ERRORS.

They are avoided, if a man buys the right tailoring. It really only pays to buy reliable makes—such as you know are correct, and that the makers know are right, or they could not afford to hand you such a sweeping guarantee. With an Edward Rose & Co. suit, you're on the safe side—protected by a guarantee that guarantees, and you are only asked to pay ordinary prices.
